

ST JOHNS HILL SCHOOL
CURRICULUM POLICY

Delivering the Curriculum

RATIONALE

A school curriculum, sound in its design and innovative in its delivery, will help pupils appreciate that learning is a life long process capable of nurturing their individual interests and abilities.

PURPOSES

- To meet the requirements of the New Zealand Curriculum.
- To reflect the goals and objectives of the school's Charter.
- To provide a school curriculum of the highest quality.
- To meet the needs, interests and aspirations of the pupils in our school.

GUIDELINES

- The school curriculum shall
  - give priority to Literacy and Numeracy, incorporating these essential learning areas across the curriculum.
  - meet learning needs and interest of the students
- The school curriculum shall be planned
  - to ensure continuity and cohesion.
  - using Education for Sustainability as an organizing framework and with clear learning intentions identified.
- the school curriculum will provide variety
  - in the teaching approaches used
  - in the types of learning activities undertaken
- The school curriculum will be inclusive
  - focusing on the needs of individual pupils
  - in order that no child is left out
- The school curriculum will be monitored
  - to ensure quality of content and delivery
  - so that it remains responsive to changing needs and situations
- The school curriculum will help pupils to
  - take increasing responsibility for their own learning
  - set personal goals and reflect upon their own performance
- The school curriculum will also
  - reflect New Zealand's bi-culture and heritage
  - be free of racism and sexism.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

The pupils must remain at the heart of all our curriculum planning. They should enjoy their learning and frequently experience success.
